No 847.

ACCORDING to a Liſt that is publiſhed at Vienna of the Imperial Forces which are for the moſt Part to be employ'd this Year againſt the Turks, they conſiſt of 52 Regiments of Foot, amounting to 128,200 Men; of 13 Regiments of Cuiraſſiers, amounting to 19,466 Men; of 14 Regiments of Dragoons, amounting to 14,931 Men; and of 10 Regiments of Huſſars, amounting to 9400 Men; which in the Whole make 94 Regiments, and 172,004 Men.

The following is an Extract of ſome remarkable Particulars in an original Letter from Conſtantinople, dated the 24th of December laſt, that came by the Way of Venice.

'The Vizier Abdallah was ſcarce arrived here 'but he was depoſed, either on Account of the 'Miſcarriage of Oczakow, or for his having ſeiz'd '6 Millions of Piaſters, which were found in his 'Coffers. He was baniſhed to Salonica, and the 'Kaimacan is preferr'd in his ſtead, who is a proud 'impetuous Man, without any military Experience, 'but enterpriſing, and a Friend to the Baſhaw of 'Boſnia, whoſe Credit is ſtill very great. The 'new Vizier's Boldneſs, and the Fault he found with 'the Conduct of his Predeceſſor, have raiſed him 'to his Poſt; but he is ſo little beloved by the other 'Miniſters, that it may be foreſeen that his Heels 'will ſoon be tripp'd up. He affects to be zealous 'for continuing the War, but 'tis very well known 'after all, that he is as deſirous of Peace, as moſt of 'the other Miniſters are. He ſhews an uncommon 'Confidence in the Ambaſſador of France.

'The Baſhaw Bonneval is returned from the 'Army, and is to ſerve next Compaign along with 'Prince Ragotski on the Side of Hungary; but he 'endeavours to ſhift off that Command, becauſe he 'had much rather ſerve in Boſnia, under the Baſhaw 'of that Province, who is his good Friend.

'Notwithſtanding what was juſt now ſaid of the 'Behaviour of the new Grand Vizier towards the 'Ambaſſador of France, it may be ſaid, that the 'Porte is jealous of all the Chriſtian Princes, and in 'particular of Spain. The Grand Vizier complains 'ſadly, that ſome Spaniſh Ships, with Venetian Co'lours, only releaſed the Crews of certain Turkiſh 'Ships which they took, without reſtoring the 'Cargo. The Baſhaws of Aſia are to have all their 'Troops ready to march by the firſt Moon in March. 'Tis given out here, that the Ambaſſador of the 'Porte has been well received at Iſpahan, and that 'he ſtays there for the Return of Kouli Kan from 'Candahar, to put the laſt Hand to the Treaty of 'Peace, and to engage him to take Arms againſt the 'Chriſtian Princes: But we have other Advices more 'to be depended on, which ſay, that Ambaſſador is 'no better than a Priſoner; that Kouli Kan does 'not think of ratifying what his Miniſter did here 'with regard to Peace; that he is upon the beſt of 'Terms with Ruſſia, and that as ſoon as he has 'ſubdued the Rebels, it will be viſible that he only 'pretended to enter into a Negociation with the 'Porte, only to gain Time for that Purpoſe.

'The Bailo of the Republick of Venice, having 'been at a late Audience of the Grand Vizier, to 'acquaint him that the Senate ſtill perſiſted in their 'Reſolution to live at Peace with the Porte, the 'Vizier declared, that he had certain Advices 'that the Republick would ſoon break with the 'Sublime Porte, and was for that end making Pre'parations for War, both by Land and Sea, under 'various other Pretences. It ſignify'd nothing for 'the Bailo to repeat his Proteſtations, that his 'Maſters really intended to maintain a good Under'ſtanding with the Sublime Porte, and that any 'Advices to the contrary, could come from none 'but Perſons miſinform'd or diſaffected, for the 'Vizier continued in his Prejudice, and even drop'd 'ſome Words, inſinuating, that the Porte was not 'like to ſtay to be attacked firſt by the Venetians. 'Some Days after this, the Bailo ſent away an Ex'preſs diſguiſed for Venice, to carry the News.'

The Letters from Vienna are ſtill poſitive, that the Emperor has intirely ratify'd the Sentence whereby General Doxat is condemned to be beheaded, for having ſurrendered the City and Caſtle of Niſſa to the Infidels without any Neceſſity, and without waiting for the Return of the Courier that he ſent to the Grand Army. People there are at a Loſs to know who was the Priſoner that was lately brought to Vienna under the Guard of an Officer and ſix Grenadiers with their Bayonets in their Muskets. 'Tis certain that he is at Moravia, or that at leaſt he paſſed through that Country in his Way hither, and therefore ſome will have him to be General Schmettau, and others the Colonel Salhauſen, heretofore the Commandant of Crajovia, but it can't be conceived from whence either of theſe could come by the Way of Moravia: There are ſome too who ſay 'tis a Captain of Count Seckendorff's Regiment; but be he who he will, the Priſoner is a Man in Years, with a long Beard.

It appears by Letters from Paris, dated the 10th Inſtant N. S. that Cardinal Fleury's Indiſpoſition has given Riſe to ſundry Reports. Some give out, that his Eminency has deſired the King to diſcharge him from the Miniſtry, and that he has nominated three Noblemen for his Majeſty to chuſe one of them to ſucceed him: And they add, that an Apartment is actually fitting up for the Cardinal at Vaucreſſon, the Seat of M. Herault, the Lieutenant General of the Police, about two Leagues from Verſailles, whither his Eminency intends to go and take the Air as ſoon as his Strength will permit him; but all this is very uncertain.

When the Duke de Tremouille was admitted into the French Academy, the Abbe d'Olivet, one of the Members, read a Piece there, intitled, A Defence of French Poetry; as alſo a Part of the 5th Canto of Arioſto, tranſlated from the Italian by M. Miraband, another of the Members: And M. de Crebillon, rehearſed the firſt Act of his new Tragedy of Catiline.

M. de Bremont is actually tranſlating the Tranſactions of the Royal Society of London into French, which will conſiſt of 40 or 50 Volumes in Quarto, in the ſame Size as the Memoirs of the Royal Academy of Sciences at Paris; and that two Volumes will be publiſhed in ſix Weeks or two Months.

From the London Gazette.

Petersburg, Feb. 14. N. S. Upon the Duke of Courland's receiving ſome Days ago Advice, that a Pruſſian Officer had enter'd his Territories, and taken away by Force a Tall Man, and wounded the Man's Wife, who endeavoured to reſcue him; his Highneſs ſent immediately one of his Secretaries to Baron Mardefeldt, to deſire him to inform the King his Maſter, that he inſiſted on having his Subject ſent back, and Satisfaction given him for this Act of Violence. Prince Charles, the Duke of Courland's youngeſt Son, is at preſent ill of the Small Pox, but in a fair Way of Recovery. General Botta arrived here the 10th Inſtant from Vienna with a Secretary of War.

Dreſden, March 12. The Miniſters here are at preſent entirely taken up with the Spaniſh Ambaſſador, to regulate all things for the Marriage and Departure of the Princeſs. We are inform'd here, that the Ruſſians deſign to open the Campaign early, will begin with Bender and Choczim, and will march through a Part of Poland.

The moſt Noble ELIXIR,

For Hypochondriack Melancholy in Men, and the Hyſterick Diſeaſe or Vapours in Women.

IN three Days Time demonſtrates to every one who takes it, that it is abſolutely infallible for the thorough Cure of thoſe perplexing Indiſpoſitions, even in their higheſt and moſt grievous Degree, where nothing but Horror reigns, where Reaſoning is interrupted or deprav'd, and where the Mind is confuſed with terrible Perturbation, Anxieties, and Deſpondency, even to Diſtraction, and the Body afflicted with almoſt innumerable Ailments.

'Tis ſurprizing to ſee how ſoon this CELEBRATED ELIXIR, (even a few Doſes of it only) entirely cures all the vaſt Variety of Symptoms, and induces a new Train of cheerful and pleaſant Ideas, inſtead of thoſe deep and black Thoughts, thoſe direful Apprehenſions that ſo tenaciouſly dwelt upon the Soul, clouded the Underſtanding, and deſtroy'd all Notion of ever receiving Comfort again; for it occaſions a Flow of undiſturb'd Spirits, and cauſes bright Gleams of Joy to break in upon the Heart, and chace away the whole Load of depreſſed and melancholy Imaginations ſo effectually, that the Patients are ſuddenly reliev'd both in Body and Mind; and now enjoying perfect Health, free and lively Spirits, ſteady, ſerene, and gay Thoughts, find as much amaz'd that they could be chain'd down to ſuch a diſmal Way of Thinking, ſuch dreadful Fears, and dark Incumbrances, as before, they were hopeleſs of ever getting free from them.

In a Word, the Effect of this NOBLE ELIXIR is ſo ſuddenly and infallibly curing HYPOCHONDRIACK MELANCHOLY in Men, and the HYSTERICK DISEASE, or VAPOURS in Women, in all their Shapes and Appearances even after all other Remedies have proved fruitleſs, is inexpreſſible, as the vaſt Numbers of both Sexes who have been perfectly cured by it, with the utmoſt Satisfaction declare.

It occaſions no Manner of Diſorder, is pleaſant to take, a few Drops of it are a Doſe, and is to be had only at Mr. RADFORD's Toy-ſhop, at the Roſe and Crown, againſt St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, at 5 s. a Bottle, with Directions.
